ORDINANCE
 MOTION / RESOLUTION
 INFORMATION

- I. BACKGROUND INFORMATION: The Boulder County Assessor's office contacted town staff to inquire about a parcel of land (#120318100009) also known as 0 Stickney Street. It appears that Margaret Russell's family found a document stating that she signed a Quit Claim Deed in 2008 transferring the property to the Town of Lyons. However, they are unable to find a recorded copy of the deed.

The estate is interested in clearing the title on this property and deeding it to the town. The parcel (map attached) currently has a well-used social trail, an electric line, and an abandoned sewer pipe.
- II. STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Staff recommends accepting the Quit Claim Deed for the parcel if offered. It will require maintenance by the town, but it could also provide a legal trail for the neighborhood, a future means of emergency egress to Longs Peak, and allow for utilities to be located on town property.
- III. LEGAL ISSUES: None known. Attorney Dittman is aware of the situation.
- IV. CONFLICTS OR ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES: Lonna and Ken Cinnamon, owners of 208 Seward, adjacent to this parcel, have previously spoken to the BOT and expressed that they have been maintaining this parcel for a very long time and feel that they have rights to it.
- V. SUMMARY AND ALTERNATIVES: The Board could direct the staff to gather additional information or further legal opinion. They could direct staff to work with the estate to deed the property to the town, or they could choose to direct staff to contact the family that we are not interested in the parcel.
